MOUSE MOUNTAIN ELEMENTARY

Message from the Principal

Hadih and Hello!

Today was Hallowe'en Fun Day at school! Students were invited to dress up. We had an awesome virtual costume parade at 1:00 in the afternoon. After the parade, students in each learning group participated in Hallowe'en activities in the gym and received a special treat from our Mouse Mountain PAC. It was a Spooktacular day!

the link on our Mouse Mountain School Website (mouse.sd91.bc.ca) under Up-coming Events. We look forward to having you join us online!

Thank you for your continued support in doing the Daily Health Check each morning and helping us to follow the COVID-19 guidelines. I appreciate all that you do to support our school!

Mrs. Megan Boniface

A friendly reminder of the time change this weekend: we set our clocks back an hour.

Families, please mark your calendar for our virtual Remembrance Day assembly on Nov 10th at 11:00 am. Our virtual assemblies will be open for families to watch from home with the link and will be recorded to watch later as well. You will find

New Process for Pictures

Picture Day was on the 20th. In about 2 weeks we will send home a Student webcard with a login code for online proofs.

Due to covid, this year things will look a little different:

- All ordering will be done online
- Your photos will be mailed directly to you
- Digital download options are available

If you need computer access, please call the school and we will make a plans for you to come in and use a computer .
